Report of the Honorary Degrees Committee

Business conducted by correspondence.

- 1 The Committee has agreed that the following Honorary Degree should be conferred

Ms Sarah Harkness (LittD, Social Sciences)

A member of University Council since 2010 and a Pro-Chancellor from 2013-2017, Harkness has made a huge contribution to the life of the University through both her role on Council and as Pro-Chancellor where, in addition to chairing the Audit Committee, she served on the Council Nominations Committee, Senate Nominations Committee, Senior Remuneration Committee and Honorary Degrees Committee. An experienced finance professional Harkness has enjoyed a successful career at the helm of some of the UK's leading companies in the fields of finance, corporate strategy, business planning, investment, recruitment, governance and publishing. She has also been a dedicated and trusted supporter of a number of not-for-profit organisations and has held non-executive board appointments in health, the arts and education, both nationally and in South Yorkshire.
