

HRI Digital

Specialising in the Digital Arts and Humanities

Detail from folio 34v of Besançon Manuscript 864
Froissart's Chronicles

Who We Are

HRI Digital is a leading provider of research and development services for the digital Arts and Humanities.

With over 16 years' experience, our mission is to support the innovative use of technology within Arts and Humanities research as both a method of inquiry and a means of dissemination.

We perform a range of activities as part of the award-winning Humanities Research Institute at the University of Sheffield.

See <http://hridigital.shef.ac.uk>

What We Do

We work with academics and researchers on research projects in the Arts and Humanities in which there is an ICT component or digital output.

This includes:

1. Assisting with the development of your funding proposal (incl. the AHRC's Technical Appendix).
2. Training and supporting your research staff in all necessary ICT and data development skills.

3. Developing the final deliverable, whether it be online or on CD-ROM or DVD.

4. Offering guidance on data development standards for preservation, interoperability and re-use.

5. Providing online publishing services (available at HRI Online Publications) for high-quality Arts and Humanities research resources which need to be peer-reviewed and made freely available to the public. See <http://www.hrionline.ac.uk>

Further Information

You can find more information by visiting:

<http://hridigital.shef.ac.uk>

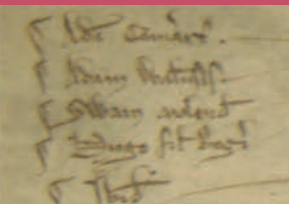

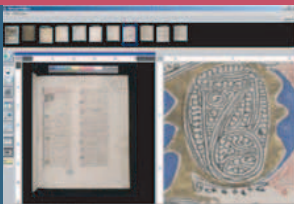

Or you can contact the Director of the Humanities Research Institute, Professor David Shepherd, at

d.g.shepherd@sheffield.ac.uk

Humanities Research Institute
The University of Sheffield
34 Gell Street, Sheffield S3 7QY

tel. 0114 222 9890 fax. 0114 222 9894

THE PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
OLD BAILEY

Benito Pérez Galdós
Torquemada en la hoguera

