

The University Of Sheffield.

Centre for Psychological Services Research

University of Sheffield

ANNOUNCES A MASTER CLASS ON

Developing clinically relevant theory & research in the psychological therapies within routine NHS practice

William B Stiles
Miami University

Theory building case studies:
Developing clinical theories from individual cases

Louis G Castonguay
Penn State University

Practice Research Networks:
Supporting practitioners in developing clinically relevant research

This is a unique learning opportunity for practitioners and researchers in the region to hear from two world-class experts about ways individual and groups of practitioners can build theories and develop relevant and rigorous research from everyday clinical practice in the NHS. The day will comprise presentations including a focus on clinical material and will include ample time for questioning the speakers.

Date: Tuesday 30th November 2010: Time: 9.30 – 4.00

Venue:

Halifax Hall
Endcliffe Vale Road
Sheffield S10 3ER

For further information/to book a place, please contact Abby Constantine: Tel: 0114-222-0753 or Email: a.constantine@sheffield.ac.uk. The cost is £40 (£25 for people in f/t training; free for service users) & includes full catering for the day. The venue has limited parking facilities. These will be allocated at the time of booking on a first-come first-served basis.