- 1) SocSoc Bake Sale

SocSoc are doing a bake sale on Tuesday 1st Nov from 12-3pm in the union building. It is for their charities, and they promise that the cakes will be yummy!

- 2) New journal article

Naomi Richards and Lorna Warren have a new article in the Journal of Aging Studies: "The challenge of creating 'alternative' images of ageing: lessons from a project with older women". It is available online at <http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.jaging.2011.08.001>.

- 3) Careers Service

Of particular interest to final year and second year students will be the two major recruitment fairs which the Careers Service has organised for next week. These are the Engineering, Science and IT Fair on Tues 1st November and the Business and Finance Fair on Wed 1st November. Over 60 employers will be present each day and a full list of exhibitors can be found from our website, as well as advice on how to prepare for the event - see www.sheffieldcareersfais.ac.uk.

As well as providing an excellent opportunities to talk face to face with prospective employers, this event can be useful to students in the 2nd or 3rd years who are keen to arrange work experience for the summer vacation, or possibly year long placement (through the 'Degrees with Employment Experience' project) - see www.sheffield.ac.uk/placements.

For full details of all Careers Service events, visit our website, www.shef.ac.uk/careers/events.
