- 1) UN: Mission Impossible lecture

United Nations Youth and Student Association Society (UNYSA) - Sheffield are happy to invite you to our first lecture this year: 'UN: Mission Impossible'.

The lecture will be given by Dr. Rhiannon Vickers, a prominent international relations scholar who teaches in the Politics Department here at the University of Sheffield. This is a unique opportunity to learn about the UN and about the challenges the organisation faces from a leading scholar in the field.

Date / Time: 10th November 2011 between 17.30 - 18.30; Venue: Arts Tower LT - 05

Entry will be open to all University of Sheffield students and there will be no charge. We hope to see you all there for an interesting and stimulating lecture! Please invite your friends (even if they're not UNYSA members)!

- 2) Goodwin Cafe

Don't forget, when you have lectures or seminars in the Elmfield Building, that you can purchase hot and cold food and drinks from the cafe at the Goodwin Sports Centre, one minute's walk down the hill from the department. The cafe is currently open from 09:30 to 14:00 every weekday.

- 3) ENQUIRE - Call for peer reviewers

ENQUIRE - Identity Research: Past Present & Future. Issue 7 – Summer 2012.

ENQUIRE is a high-quality online journal for the social sciences which provides an encouraging and exciting space for academic research both from the UK and abroad. ENQUIRE aims to fill a gap in the postgraduate research community by providing a critical yet supportive outlet for publications from postgraduate students, post-doctoral students, and early career academics.

ENQUIRE is currently seeking new and experienced peer reviewers for our seventh issue, which will be based on the ENQUIRE conference "Identity Research: Past, Present & Future" (held at the University of Nottingham, September 2011).

If you are interested in becoming a peer reviewer for this issue (or in the future), please contact us on Enquire@nottingham.ac.uk before 30 November 2011. You can visit our website at www.nottingham.ac.uk/sociology/enquire for further information about the ENQUIRE conferences and journal, along with access to previous issues.
