

Recruitment Fairs 2011-12

Sheffield Universities Recruitment Fairs (SURF) is a partnership between the Careers Service at The University of Sheffield and the Careers and Employment Service at Sheffield Hallam University to develop and deliver a programme of collaborative recruitment fairs. They include:

Engineering, Science & IT Fair

Tuesday 1 November 2011, Octagon Centre, University of Sheffield

You can expect to meet with over 1,800 students and graduates at this Fair, aimed at people from both Sheffield universities interested in an engineering, science or IT related career. Our target audience comprises: final year undergraduate and postgraduate students looking for graduate positions commencing 2012; recent graduates interested in immediate vacancies; and students in penultimate years of study looking for internship and placement opportunities and positions starting in 2013.

Business & Finance Fair

Wednesday 2 November 2011, Octagon Centre, University of Sheffield

This Fair is aimed at students and graduates interested in a business, finance, HR, marketing, sales, insurance, accountancy or management related career. Over 1,500 students and graduates from both Sheffield universities attend this Fair, including final year undergraduate and postgraduate students looking for graduate positions commencing 2012; recent graduates interested in immediate vacancies; and students in penultimate years of study looking for internship and placement opportunities and positions starting in 2013.

Modern Languages Fair

Wednesday 16 November 2011, University of Sheffield

This departmental Fair is an opportunity to speak exclusively with students in the University of Sheffield's School of Modern Languages and Linguistics.

Summer Experience Online Fair

30 January 2012 – 4 May 2012, online at www.sheffieldcareersfairs.ac.uk

This online event will run throughout semester two, highlighting a range of opportunities (travel abroad projects, gap year expeditions, vacation and voluntary work), as well as providing a resource centre packed with information to help students prepare for their summer and stay safe. It will be targeted at students in all years of study, and at pre-entry students joining the institution in September.

Spring into Jobs Fair

Wednesday 7 March 2012, Octagon Centre, University of Sheffield

Targeted at final year undergraduate and postgraduate students from both Sheffield universities who are graduating in the summer, this Fair provides an excellent opportunity for graduate recruiters who are looking to fill immediate vacancies.

Summer Graduate Recruitment Online Fair

11 - 22 June 2012, online at www.sheffieldcareersfairs.ac.uk

Our online Fair gives you one last chance to make contact with students and graduates in Sheffield before they graduate. Better still, if you attend one of the above SURF events in 2011/12 there is no charge for participation.

Other Fairs at the University of Sheffield

Part-time Jobs and Volunteering Fair

Wednesday 5 October 2011, Octagon Centre, University of Sheffield

This event will provide local organisations with an opportunity to recruit for any part-time, seasonal or temporary paid vacancies. Attendance at the Fair is FREE and it will enable you to meet face to face with students studying at Sheffield University who are looking for part time paid work.

See www.sheffield.ac.uk/careers/employers/fairs/parttime for further information. To find out more, contact The Student Jobshop, tel: 0114 222 0940, email: studentjobshop@sheffield.ac.uk

Sheffield Legal Fair

Wednesday 23 November 2011, Octagon Centre, University of Sheffield

This is an information event for law and non-law students interested in joining the legal profession after graduation. Approximately 78 organisations participate in the event which is attended by c650 students from the University of Sheffield and other universities in the region. The main focus of the event is on helping second year students locate training contracts. However, students in earlier and later years of study also attend.
