

PGR Colloquium: Approaches to Multilingualism

Monday, 9 November 2020

9:00 (GMT) Words of welcome

Dr Kristine Horner (University of Sheffield)

9:15 - 10:00 Research seminar

Dr Mi Yung Park (University of Auckland)

Heritage language use in the workplace: 1.5-generation Korean migrants in New Zealand

10:00 - 10:15 Short break

10:15 PGR Colloquium: Session 1

10:15 - 10:45 Anthony Connor (University of Sheffield)

Navigating linguistic authenticity in the Dolomites Ladin community

10:45 - 11:15 Verena Platzgummer (Eurac Research/University of Vienna)

Linguistic Repertoires and (In)competent Speakerhood: Ideologies and Positionings of Adolescents in South Tyrol

11:15 - 11:45 Andrew Bradley (University of Sheffield)

Linguistic authority and authoritative texts: Comparing student perspectives of the politics of language and identity in Catalonia and the Valencian Community

11:45 - 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 PGR Colloquium: Session 2

13:00 - 13:30 Sarah Muller (University of Sheffield)

The lived experience of language (education policy): Exploring the perspectives of primary school students in Luxembourg

13:30 - 14:00 Nell Foster (Ghent University, University of the Western Cape)

Navigating social cohesion in the emergent plurilingual classroom

14:00 - 14:30 Round-table discussion and close of event