

Remember: you cannot begin any research until appropriate SchHARR and second year university research ethics approvals or declarations have been completed & agreement given. Notification must be given of any proposed changes or amendments to the research before any change is made; complete the Amendment Form and email to scharr-rec@shef.ac.uk for review. Do not act on changes until approval is given.