Intro Week timetable 2022

Welcome to the Information School. You'll have received quite a lot of information from the University about Intro Week, and this timetable summarises the main Information School events you need to attend.

For more detailed information, please access the Blackboard site "INF Welcome to Information School - Guidance and Updates (ACADEMIC YEAR 2022~23)"

Before you arrive
Read University guidance
Check through the instructions the University has sent you, and any information relating to new Postgraduates on the University website:
