

The University
Of Sheffield.

Department
of Music.

12 October 2019, 11.00 – 16.15

Department of Music,
The University of Sheffield, Leavygreave Road,
Sheffield, S3 7RD, UK

Sound Teaching

Workshops for Teachers on Expression, Communication and Creativity in Music Performance

- Opportunity for teachers to share good practice and ideas in an informal setting.
- Interactive presentations
- Workshops
- Based on current research

Topics include:

- Teaching and learning of expressive performance;
- Communication and decision making in ensembles;
- Improvisation skills in Western classical music;
- Communicating abstract concepts through sound and body

Free to attend, refreshments included.

Registration required: <https://bit.ly/2kNLU9C>

<https://www.sheffield.ac.uk/music/research/research-conferences/sound-teaching-workshops-expression-communication-and-creativity-music-performance>

The
University
Of Sheffield.

Programme

Sound Teaching, 12 October, 2019

10:30 – 11:00	Tea & coffee
11:00 – 11:10	Welcome - Renee Timmers
11:10 – 12:00	Workshop 1: Improvising in Western classical repertoire - Jonathan Ayerst
12:00 – 12:50	Workshop 2: Communicating abstract concepts through sound and body – Shen Li
12:50 – 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 – 14:50	Workshop 3: Dialogic teaching for expressive music performance – Henrique Meissner
14:50 – 15:40	Workshop 4: Communication and decision making in ensemble rehearsal – Nicola Pennill
15:40 – 16:15	Plenary discussion: Perspectives on teaching expression and creativity in music performance - Renee Timmers
16:15	Close