Overview
The Dean’s list is a prestigious award which recognises and rewards academic merit and unique contribution to the Mission and Vision of the Management School around sustainability, social responsibility and employability. The List is a growing body of alumni (former students) who have demonstrated social responsibility and employability as well as academic achievement.

The award launched in 2018 to Undergraduate students, and in 2019 welcomed Postgraduate Taught students to apply.

Vision
To be a recognised leading international management school known for delivering an outstanding student experience and impactful socially-responsible research in a collegiate learning environment.
Mission
To use world class research to develop knowledgeable and employable students, promote socially responsible work practices and have a positive impact on organisations & society

Applying for the Dean’s List

Overview
To apply to be on the Dean’s List you must submit a self-reflective application that demonstrates how you have made an exceptional contribution to the world around you as well as how you have developed your employability skills and expertise. You must also achieve the minimum academic standard of 65% or above.

Application
You must write a self-reflective case study for each of the two main criteria of social responsibility and employability. Each should have a maximum of 750 words, demonstrating how skills and experience gained during your postgraduate studies are enabling you to meet the criteria outlined for Employable Students (ES1-3) and Socially Responsible (SR1-3).

Criteria
The criteria will be a combination of academic performance and the case you present in relation to the two criteria outlined below. These two areas; Employable Student and Social Responsibility will be your opportunity to demonstrate the contribution you have made to the mission of the school. The case study and evidence provided will be judged using the criteria outlined below.

Your academic performance will be provided following the examining boards ratification.

Evidencing Success
A Dean’s List winner at postgraduate level is required to succinctly illustrate, with examples, how they have continued to grow and evolve since commencing their postgraduate study.
Examples may include projects that you are undertaking in the third-sector, extracurricular ventures you have started since enrolling for your MSc and MBA, or areas of significant personal development (such as subject-specific training or CPD) that provides a clear justification of how you are engaging with the school’s mission and vision.

The examples will need to be either (a) new activities or (b) sustained and elevated activities, which demonstrate increased impact whilst undertaking postgraduate studies.

Sources of Evidence
You will need to provide evidence of your impact on society and yours or others employability skills. Sources of evidence can include but are not limited to:

1. Reference(s) from organisations that you have been involved with
2. Testimonials from those that you have helped
3. Media coverage of your work

<tr>
<td>Good</td>
<td>Engagement with mission for a period of at least six months and less than one year. Demonstrable positive impact on organisations or society during period of engagement, which is appropriate for a limited period of engagement. Demonstrating a progressive approach to growth in your own employability skills. A clearly articulated case demonstrating an overall high standard, a mostly-consistent approach and relates, partially or to some extent with the mission of the school.</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Limited</td>
<td>Some engagement with mission for a period of less than six months. Demonstrable positive impact on organisations or individuals during period of engagement, but is limited in scope. Demonstrating limited progression in growth in your own employability skills. A reasonably articulated case but lacking in competency, showed by inconsistency in its approach and does not relates adequately to the mission of the school.</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Very Limited</td>
<td>Limited engagement with mission for a period of less than six months. Activities are described, however, it is not clear how a positive impact on organisations or individuals during period of engagement occurred. Demonstrating minimal growth in your own employability skills. A poorly articulated case with obvious inconsistency in its approach and does not relate to the mission of the school.</td>

Judging of the Final Year Postgraduate Level
The following process is used for the judging of Dean’s List applications.

The Dean’s List Panel is comprised of:

- The Dean of Sheffield University Management School
- The Associate Dean Learning and Teaching, Sheffield University Management School
- The Associate Dean International, Alumni and Accreditation, Sheffield University Management School
- The External Relations & Alumni Manager, Sheffield University Management School.

The Panel will independently score each application against the criteria.

The mean of the four total scores will then be calculated and rounded to zero decimal places.¹
The panel's judgement is final.

¹ Normal rounding rules apply. Scores < 0.5 round down, score ≥ 0.5 round up.
