Newspaper cutting on case (West Country Dynasties. A six-part series which documents the history of the West Country through the lives of the families who have worked in the region through the years. The first programme features the Rowlands family, who have been fairground showpeople for more than a century. Of the four generations currently employed in the business, Albert and Evelyn have left the running of the family fair to son David and his three sons, while David's brother Kimmy, runs Blackpool Pleasure Beach. Director/ Producer Caroline Righton, subtitled)
Newspaper cutting on case (Shakespeare's Globe. Documentary which charts the realisation of film director Sam Wanamaker's dream of building a theatre on the South Bank of the river Thames, where Shakespeare's Globe Theatre once stood. As the grand opening approaches, tension among those working on the project escalates. Director/Producer Cassie Braban, subtitled.)
