As with any city-based University, parking on campus is limited and you'll need to get a permit from the department you're visiting, which will usually take one week to arrange. The City Centre map and the University of Sheffield map show you where general parking is available.

Travelling to the University

By rail and coach
There are regular rail and coach services between Sheffield and London, Edinburgh, Birmingham, Manchester and Leeds.

Local transport
You can catch the Supertram to the campus from the railway station and the city centre. Both the blue route to Malin Bridge and the yellow route to Middlewood stop at West Street and at the University.

The following buses stop at, or near the University: 10, 30, 51, 51A, 52, 95, 120, 123, 505. Bus stops and bus numbers are marked on the maps. The 120 bus runs to the University from Sheffield Transport Interchange.

By car
Parking on campus is limited, so if you plan to drive to the University, please arrange parking with your hosts in advance or use park and ride.

From M1, M18
Approach Sheffield on the M1 and leave the motorway at junction 33, follow signs along the dual carriageway A630/A57/A61 Parkway. After entering the 40mph zone, turn right onto the Ring Road at junction 1 – Cutler’s Gate. Continue along the Ring Road following signs for 'University of Sheffield' for departments in the Broad Lane and Mappin Street areas, and the third exit for the main Western Bank part of the campus.

From Manchester and the west (via M60 and A628 Woodhead Pass)
Leave the M60 (east) at junction 24 – signed ‘Sheffield’. Continue following the signs for 'University of Sheffield' for departments in the Broad Lane and Mappin Street areas, and the third exit for the main Western Bank part of the campus.
