APPENDIX 3

DCLIN PSY STAFF PUBLICATIONS 2012
(SINCE PREVIOUS REPORT)

(staff & honorary lecturers in bold; * indicates DClin Psy Trainee/PhD student)

Refereed Journal Articles

Books and monographs

Book chapters and encyclopaedia entries

Clinical Service & Professional reports/papers

Conferences and invited presentations

Beail, N. (2012). Trauma informed services for people with intellectual disabilities and autism. AUTEA Conference, Bielefeld, Germany.

Beail, N. (2012). Treatment as an alternative to incarceration. 8th International Conference on Education and Rehabilitation Sciences, Zagreb, Croatia.

Blundell-Jones, J.*, Isaac, C. & Walsh S. Understanding emotional distress in Multiple sclerosis: a qualitative study. Professional Services Directorate Quality Initiative Events, 13th November Royal Hallamshire Hospital, 27 November Northern General Hospital

Hardy, G.E. (March 2012) University of Tokyo, Japan Invited talk: A stepped care approach to improving access to psychological therapies

Lam, E.*, & Thompson, A. (2012). Living with a skin condition: A meta-ethnography review of qualitative studies of dermatological conditions. Poster presentation at the 8th Annual Scientific Meeting of the UK Society for Behavioural Medicine, Manchester

Lam, E.*, & Thompson, A. (2012). The experience of living with a skin condition: a qualitative study of Chinese women living in the UK. Poster presentation at the 8th Annual Scientific Meeting of the UK Society for Behavioural Medicine, Manchester

Thompson, A. (2012). A Randomised Controlled Trial Comparing the Effectiveness of Online Compassion-focused Self-Help with Mindfulness-based Self-Help for Psoriasis. Paper presented within a structured discussion - Sources of and management of distress associated with psoriasis. 8th Annual Scientific Meeting of the UK Society for Behavioural Medicine, Manchester

Thompson, A. R. Supporting the psychosocial needs of the patients with skin conditions. Invited Seminar, Hallam University, 26/10/2012.

Thompson, A. R. Supporting the psychosocial needs of the patients with skin conditions. Invited presentation at the Annual conference of the British Association of Dermatology, July 2012.

Walsh, S., Supervision: Can we integrate kindness and standardisation, November 2012 PS SHSCT Fulwood Training Centre.

Research grants held and awarded during the year (including ESRC Collaborative Award Research Studentships)

Tropical Health Education Trust (THET) Health Partnership Scheme Start Up Grants. Thompson, A. Reducing psychological distress associated with skin conditions: A Partnership between The Psychology Department, The University of Sheffield, UK, and The Nigerian Association of Dermatologists, and The Vitiligo Support and Awareness Foundation (VITSAF) (awarded October 2012). £ 4715.58

New grants awarded 2012

Rowse, G., Brooks, A., Norman, P., Nirula, P., & Lobo, A. (awarded 2012) Adolescents experiences of living with Inflammatory Bowel Disease. Funding: Crohn’s & Colitis UK (previously National Association for Crohn’s and Colitis UK): £65,000.00

Other currently active grants

Barkham, M., Parry, G.D., Hardy, G.E., Kellett, S., Saxon, D., Chambers, E., & Shankland, M-C. The singer not the song: Determining the methodological requirements for a well-designed study of practitioner effects. Funding: Sheffield Health & Social Care Trust: £46,740.

