Postgraduate Research Student Achievements 2012

PhDs Awarded in 2012

- Mubashir Arain, Jon Journal of Public Health; Published Online First 5 Oct 2012.
- Musculoskeletal Physiotherapy- Low back pain - Outcome Measures

- Mifsaudi Abubakar James Fotheringham Thamer Altaim Amal Alaswad
- There were 22 successful upgrades from MPhil to PhD in 2012

- A Qualitative Study Adherence to Antiretroviral Treatment in Nepal Sharada Wasti Carl Tilling
- Managing Structural Uncertainty in Health Economic Decision Models Tony Smith

- Non-Suicidal Self-Injury Among University Students Katie Dhingra
- Exploring young people’s perceptions of the impact of sexualised media on their sexual health: Parveen Ali

- PhDs Awarded in 2012

- Ji Hee Youn
- Emily Wood
- Petter Viksveen
- Kinga Sokolowska-Lowrie
- Sarah Smith

- Problems Emerge Adaptation of a Health Economic Model of Treatments for ACS as New Evidence and Decision Stephanie Thurston
- in NICE modelling.

- Exploring the meaning and impact of public involvement in research. Rosemary Barber Acknowledging a ‘Dual Heritage’ for Qualitative Evidence Synthesis.

- Hazal Squires was awarded the Research Divisional Award for her research on ‘The Role of Social Support in the Reduction of Mental Health Problems in Older People’.

- Steven Sheehy
-連接健康和研究

- Phds Awarded in 2012

- Joanne Kinnane
- James Fotheringham
- Thamer Altaim
- Amal Alaswad

- Other Achievements

- James Fotheringham was awarded the Research Divisional Scientific Prize.

- Kennial Shah was awarded Outstanding Presentation by a Young Researcher for the Society for Medical Decision Making.