Induction Passport.

for Postgraduate Research Students
Introduction

Welcome to the University of Sheffield. This Induction Passport has been made available by Research & Innovation Services to aid you in your first few weeks at the University.

Please use the passport to ensure that you have received all the information you require relating to your supervision and departmental contacts, completing your Doctoral Development Programme (DDP) registration and all the other initial tasks necessary on commencing your research degree. It is designed as a resource to keep with you during your first few weeks at Sheffield, to record details of names, numbers and any other useful information.

Graduate Research Centre, Dainton Building

The Graduate Research Centre is a facility exclusively for the use of postgraduate research students from across the University.

The Centre provides dedicated workspace for 50 research students who do not have such facilities in their academic departments.

The Centre is open to students based there seven days a week, between the hours of 8.00am and 12.00pm. The Centre is manned by Research & Innovation Services staff during normal office hours, Monday-Friday. Students may apply for a workspace to use throughout their research degree or for specific periods of time, e.g. literature review or writing up. Application forms can be obtained from the Centre’s reception or from:
