 On box: 'Hall Room Boys with Syd Smith etc: These comedies are all from the Hall Room Boys series with Jack Cohn financed in 1921-23 and the profits helped him to start Columbia Pictures. In 1921 the Art of Silent Farce was still progressing and gags were being developed. So these American comedies were the sort of 'eggs' which hatched to

Sound. Colour. Feature film starring Burt Lancaster, Tony Curtis and Gina Lollobrigida. Distributed by Derann, Directed by Carol Reed, a Susan Productions Inc. Copyright 1956 Joanna Productions A.G. Bash American trapeze artist, Tony Curtis, joins the famed Cirque d'Hiver in Paris to learn the technique of the almost impossible triple aerial somersault from old flyer Burt Lancaster. Their smooth double act is devastated by flirtatious tumbler, Gina Lollobrigida, who brings tragedy in her wake. However, Curtis finally benefits from the skills he has learnt and becomes a star performer. Filmed against the effervescence, dazzling colour and marvellous atmosphere of the circus, this big movie features the most exciting aerial shots ever filmed

George Williams Collection 178D12

- 178D12.1 (The) Arrest of a Pickpocket
April 1895
Nitrate
Robert Paul and Birt Acres
Great Britain
A man is pursued by a constable, runs right across the picture, they struggle together and the policeman's helmet is knocked off, then the pickpocket, by slipping out of his jacket, manages to escape, but runs into the arms of a sailor, with whose assistance he is arrested
George Williams Collection
- 178D12.2 Boxing Kangaroo

- May/June 1895
Nitrate
Robert Paul and Birt Acres
Great Britain
Filmed on what appears to be a small wooden stage, this film shows a boxing bout between a youth and a kangaroo refereed by possibly the animal trainer or showman, who appears to the left of the pugilists
George William Collection
- 178D12.3 (Performing Animals) (Skipping Dogs(?))
May/June 1895
Nitrate
Robert Paul and Birt Acres
Great Britain
This title consists of two animal acts filmed on the same stage as the previous titles. The first sequence shows a dog jumping through a hoop held by an animal trainer or showman. The second sequence shows possibly one of the earliest tributes to the Skirt Dance on film, with a chimpanzee or monkey performing the dance with the aid of its trainer
George Williams Collection
- 178D12.4 (Family Group)
c. July 1895
Birt Acres
Great Britain
Only partial fragments of this film of a family group have survived. The film is believed to date from July 1895, and shows a few frames of a family group, possibly members of the Acres family
George Williams Collection
- 178D12.5 (Boxing Match)
1895/96?
Birt Acres
Great Britain
The film consists of outdoor scenes showing two boxers in action, with a referee, corner men, and ringside onlookers. Possibly Acres' Boxing Match (August 1896) or Boxing Match/Boxing Contest (1895)
George William Collection
- 178D12.6 (Landing at Low Tide)
August 1896?
Birt Acres
Great Britain
(The Lady and the Boat)
1899
Haydon & Urry
The film's action consists of two individuals in a boat involved in a heated discussion. A third person (the boatsman) wades into the water to help the woman occupant from the boat. She falls into the water, and a comic tussle ensues

George William Collection

- 178D12.7 (Yarmouth Fishing Boats Leaving Harbour)
July 1896?

The first programme features the Rowlands family, who have been fairground showpeople for more than a century. Of the four generations currently employed in the business, Albert and Evelyn have left the running of the family fair to son David and his three sons, while David's brother Kimmy, runs Blackpool Pleasure Beach. Director/ Producer Caroline Righton, subtitled)
Newspaper cutting on case (Shakespeare's Globe. Documentary which charts the realisation of film director Sam Wanamaker's dream of building a theatre on the South Bank of the river Thames, where Shakespeare's Globe Theatre once stood. As the grand opening approaches, tension among those working on the project escalates. Director/Producer Cassie Braban, subtitled.)
