Quantitative Research in Education Conference.

Sheffield Methods Institute in collaboration with the School of Education and Applied Quantitative Methods Network

10.30  Registration and coffee

10.50  Introduction to Quantitative Research in Education Event
        ❖ Prof Gwilym Pryce (AQMeN & SMI, University of Sheffield)

11.00  Using the Scottish Longitudinal Survey to analyse social inequalities in school subject choice’ (45mins)
        ❖ Prof Cristina Iannelli (AQMeN, University of Edinburgh)

          Q & A (15mins)

12.00  Break

12.10  A multilevel longitudinal analysis of rich-poor achievement gaps in English schools (45mins)
        ❖ Dr George Leckie (University of Bristol)

          Q & A (15mins)

13.10  Lunch in the Foyer

14.00  Close

Inclusive Society.

World class research, making a difference.