Summer Schools 2018.

Information for Global Scholars.
Summer Schools Portfolio Summer 2018

About the Global Scholars Scholarship

The Global Scholars scholarship enables students to participate in a summer school at one of our overseas partner universities. The scholarship covers a return air-fare as well as tuition and accommodation fees at the host university.

Where can I go?

The University of Sheffield has developed summer school partnerships with a variety of European and non-European universities. Information on each of the universities is provided within this portfolio as well as on our web pages at: www.sheffield.ac.uk/summerschools/partneruniversities

When can I go?

• If you were awarded a place on the Global Scholars scheme before beginning your studies in Sheffield, the summer school may take place after your first or second year, depending on your University of Sheffield degree requirements. Please check your availability very carefully. Medicine students should pay particular attention to this.

• If you were awarded a place on the Global Scholars scheme after beginning your studies in Sheffield, the summer school must take place in 2018.

Points to Consider

• Course credits do not count towards your University of Sheffield degree
• Courses are not necessarily subject-specific
• Some courses require pre-reading and/or exams during the course
• Some courses have an intensive workload and only a limited social programme
• Course information may be subject to change
• Courses may be cancelled due to a lack of demand
• Places cannot be guaranteed
• Entry requirements and pre-requisites may apply
• Partner universities have the right to reject applications based on their own selection methods

Next Steps

1. Read this portfolio in conjunction with our web pages and the partner university web pages
2. Choose 6 universities in order of preference – at least 3 must be European partner universities
3. Submit your choices via our online application form, a link to which will be posted on: www.sheffield.ac.uk/summerschools/globalscholars
   Deadline: 03 January 2018
4. Wait for an email from Global Opportunities & Exchanges towards the end of January confirming your allocated university before proceeding any further Questions?

Please email: globalopps@sheffield.ac.uk

Please note that we can’t answer specific questions about the individual summer school content. You will find a lot more detail, as well as contact information, on our partner university web pages, links to which are listed in each of the summer school summaries below.

Website
Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic

Charles University was founded in 1348, making it one of the oldest universities in the world. It is the largest and most renowned Czech university, and is also the top-rated Czech university according to international rankings.

Prague is ranked 5th in the TripAdvisor's list of the world’s best destinations. This is probably due to the fact it is home to a number of famous cultural attractions, ten major museums, theatres, galleries and cinemas. Nightlife here is diverse and plentiful from trendy clubs to sophisticated wine bars to late-night cellar bars.

Charles University summer school courses are taught in English and offered across three separate faculties. See below for further information.

Institute of Political Studies, Paris, France

Founded in 1872, Sciences Po is France’s leading university for the social sciences. It is an international research university that ranks amongst the finest institutions in the fields of social sciences and humanities.

The Sciences Po Paris campus is located in the heart of the historic Saint-Germain-des-Prés neighbourhood on the border of the 6th and 7th arrondissements with hundreds of restaurants, bars, cinemas and art galleries in the surrounding streets. All its buildings are within walking distance of one another and within easy reach of famous landmarks such as the Musée du Louvre and Notre Dame.

The Sciences Po Summer School is an intensive short-term programme that encompasses two separate sessions during the months of June and July. During each session, there is a choice of either the French Language or the Social Sciences track.

Global Scholars please note that we can only fund one track within one session (normally the July session).

Course offering

The Migrant Crisis in Greece

Learn, Experience & Volunteer

A migrant or a refugee? What is the correct definition? How does the migrant crisis connect with the different socio-economic and political crises occurring in Southeast Europe? How is the migrant crisis handled in Greece? Attend lectures on migration, listen to real life experiences, views and insights from people working in NGOs and public authorities managing migration flows in Greece and volunteer on site with an NGO.

The summer school focuses on making students aware of the migrant crisis and its wider political, economic and social implications, through a series of lectures, workshops, guest speeches and volunteering.

Key Aspects of the Programme

Through this summer school, students will have the chance to:

- Expand their knowledge about the migrant crisis
- Understand how the migrant crisis affects every aspect of modern society
- Experience everyday living and various aspects of Greek society
- Volunteer on site

The summer school programme is taught and delivered in English. Upon completion of the programmes students will receive a Certificate of Attendance from The University of Sheffield International Faculty, CITY College.

Extracurricular Activity

- The summer course includes a strong social and cultural programme that will allow you to use your interpersonal and communication skills as well as to visit Greece and get to know Greek culture, to meet students from various countries in an English speaking multicultural environment.

Accommodation

Accommodation is organised by City College. It normally consists of a shared room in a nearby hotel.

The University of Amsterdam, Netherlands

The University of Amsterdam was founded in 1632 on a tradition of highly integrated teaching and research, with an excellent reputation across the world. It was ranked 63rd in the 2015-16 THE world rankings. Summer schools are offered across 3 subject areas at Bachelor, Master and PhD levels and are attended by around 3,000 students from over 90 countries.

Amsterdam is the capital city of the Netherlands and is home to around 2.5 million people. The city attracts over 5 million international travellers each year. Amsterdam is a compact city and is laced with atmospheric lanes and quarters. You never know what you'll find: a hidden garden, a gallery, a shop selling velvet ribbon, a jenever (Dutch gin) distillery, an old monastery-turned-classical-music-venue. Wherever you end up, it’s probably by a canal, a café, or a bike.

Utrecht University, The Netherlands

Founded in 1636, Utrecht University has evolved into a modern and leading institution with a growing international reputation. The Shanghai Rankings place the university in first place in The Netherlands, on a 13th place in Europe and worldwide on a shared 52nd place. Utrecht Summer School offers 200 English-taught summer courses in the months of July and August, which are attended by around 3,000 students each year.

Utrecht is one of The Netherlands’ oldest cities with a compact medieval centre set around canals, where you can find many places to eat and drink by the waterside. Elsewhere, the city is busy reinventing itself and part of the excitement is witnessing this ongoing transformation. Utrecht’s student population of 40,000 is the largest in the country, making it a very vibrant and young city. From subterranean music cellars to movie houses-cum-pubs to a slew of special beer cafes, the range of social outlets ranks among the nation’s broadest.
