Crossing Languages, Crossing Cultures
Luxembourg Studies Colloquium
Friday, 5 May 2017, Humanities Research Institute
#luxcolloq2017

10.45 - 10.50  Words of Welcome
Professor Dave Petley, Vice-President for Research & Innovation (Sheffield)

10.50 - 11.00  Opening of Colloquium
HE Mr Patrick Engelberg, Luxembourg Ambassador to the Court of St James’s
Language and Education (Chair: Kristine Horner)

11.00 - 12.00  Keynote lecture by Claudine Kirsch (Luxembourg)
Capitalising on children’s linguistic repertoire in diverse contexts: practices and challenges

12.00 - 12.30  Sarah Muller (Sheffield)
Primary School Teachers as Negotiators of Language Education Policy: Strategies, Beliefs and Ideologies

12.30 - 14.00  Lunch Buffet

13.00 - 14.20  L2 and L3 Student Poster Presentations

14.20 - 14.30  Short Break
Status and Function of Luxembourgish (Chair: Jean-Jacques Weber)

14.30 - 15.20  Michael Migliaccio (Sheffield)
Italian experiences with Luxembourgish as the language of integration

John Bellamy (Cambridge) and Kristine Horner (Sheffield)
Exploring the discursive construction of Luxembourgish as the national language

15.20 - 15.50  Sandra Schmit (Luxembourg)
"The first question is always: In what language should I write?" An Overview of Contemporary Luxembourgish Literature.

15.50 - 16.00  Short Break

16.00 - 17.00  Reading of Guy Rewenig’s work by Sandra Schmit (Luxembourg) as part of the Arts and Humanities Festival
Multilingual Reading of Guy Rewenig’s work Your Heart of Ice is Hot as Vice and other titles (Sandra Schmit, Centre national de littérature)

17.00 - 18.30  Reception