About

The Dean's List recognises the extraordinary and inspiring achievements of our students which support the Mission & Vision of the Management School. There are three components of the Dean's List: you must achieve a minimum academic standard of 65%, demonstrate how you have made an exceptional contribution to organisations and society, and show how you have proactively advanced your employability skills.

First and second year undergraduates are encouraged to participate early through our Pathway to Dean's List series.

Final year undergraduates and postgraduate masters students have the opportunity to make an application for the Dean's List award.

Why Should I Participate?

Aside from being a valuable asset for your CV, the winners will receive a personal reference from the Dean, an engraved trophy, and special access to the Management School's Advisory Board networks consisting of CEO's and Directors from across the business sector.

Level 1 Pathway

First year undergraduates: you have the opportunity to learn about the Dean's List criteria and start thinking about the evidence needed in a fun, creative way. Your challenge is to create a short 60-90 second video on the theme of 'What Do I Want to Achieve in 3 Years' Time?' You must create an engaging film that clearly explains how you will do this, with reference to the core criteria.

Deadline: 4pm, 29th March 2019.

Level 2 Pathway

Second year undergraduates: you are asked to build a skills and competencies portfolio. Document any recent employment positions, career-related training, personal development, and any voluntary activities you have undertaken within the areas of sustainability and social action. Individual feedback will be provided to you.

Deadline: 4pm, 29th March 2019.
