

LAND — SCAPE 50 SHEFF — IELD

21.03.18

The Future of Landscape Architecture

Sheffield City Hall
— Ballroom Entrance
Balm Green

8.30am Doors Open

9.30am
Welcome

Professor James Hitchmough,
Head of the Department of Landscape, the University of Sheffield

9.45am
Earth Gods

Richard Weller,
Chair of Landscape Architecture,
PennDesign

10.15am
Science and Imagination
in the Landscape

Joan Nassauer, Professor
of Landscape Architecture,
School of Environment and Sustainability,
University of Michigan

Break

11.15am
Empowerment of Aesthetics

Stig Andersson, Founder and Creative Director, SLA Architects

11.45am
Should Ecological Planting
Design be a Profession Separate from Landscape Architecture?

Thomas Rainer, Principal,
Phyto Studio

12.15pm
Past Imaginations
of a Fertile Future

Mohan Rao, Principal,
Integrated Design (INDÉ)

Lunch

2.00pm
A Dialogue on: Building Resilience in Our Cities

Ceylan Belek and Matthew Short,
Associate Directors, Martha Schwartz Partners

2.30pm
Just Sustainabilities: Policy, Planning and Practice

Julian Agyeman, Professor of Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning, Tufts University

Break

3.30pm
Future Cities and Blue-eyed Black Lemurs

Andrew Grant, Founding
Director, Grant Associates

4.00pm
Time for Reflection

Teresa Moller,
Owner,
Teresa Moller
Studio

4.30pm
Questions and Answers Session

Facilitated by Professor Nigel Dunnett, Director of Impact, the Department of Landscape

5.15pm
Drinks and Canapés Reception

Sessions facilitated by Professor Anna Jorgensen, Director of Research and Mel Burton, Director of Learning and Teaching, the Department of Landscape

Landscape50 celebrates 50 years of the Department of Landscape at the University of Sheffield