Festival of the Mind
Thursday 20 - Sunday 30 September

Festival of the Mind is back this September! The festival sees University of Sheffield academics and professionals from Sheffield's cultural, creative and digital industries working together to bring our research to life in exciting, innovative and entertaining ways.

This city wide collaboration led by the University demonstrates the wealth and potential of our amazing city and our worldwide research.

The festival has something for all ages with events including candyfloss technology, the future, local history, robots, music and much much more. All events are free of charge and take place in venues across the heart of the city. The two centrepieces of the festival are the fabulous Spiegeltent in Barker's Pool and FutureCade - an exciting interactive exhibition in the Millennium Gallery.

Saturday 16 June, 11am-3pm
Free and open to all. Moor Markets, Sheffield, S1 4PF

www.sheffield.ac.uk/pre/public-engagement/mrcfestival
Come and join us and take part in the many interactive activities planned. We are delighted to be supported by the Medical Research Council to showcase some of the brilliant MRC funded research that is delivered by the University of Sheffield. We are hosting a full day of family fun and interactive events to engage and entertain the public at the bustling Moor Market.

NHS 70th birthday celebrations
Thursday 5 July
Further information and timings will be available in the run up to the event, via www.sheffield.ac.uk/nhs70

As part of the NHS 70th birthday celebrations, come along to an exhibition and activity event focusing on Sheffield’s contribution to the development of medical research and clinical trials around the globe. The University of Sheffield has a proud and successful heritage of medical research and many of the past achievements, current trials and future opportunities will be celebrated all day outside the Cathedral at a series of stalls and exhibitions.
