1. Take a brilliant photo during your summer school

2. Post it to either Facebook or Instagram with a great caption which tells us where it was taken

3. Tag Global Opportunities @uosglobalopps and use the hashtag #uosabroad2018

4. You can post up to 3 photos, and make sure you enter before the closing date of Friday 14 September

The student who submits the best photo and caption will receive £50 in vouchers, there will also be two £10 runner-up prizes. The winning entry will be chosen by Global Opportunities and announced during the first week of term (commencing 24 September).

The small print: to encourage future students to take part in summer schools we will be re-sharing some of the entries on our social media channels and may use some of the images in promotional materials such as Global Opportunities brochures and on our website. We might also share with partner organisations which work to promote opportunities to study abroad. Photos submitted must be taken by you. If you use images that feature other people please ensure that you obtain permission from those individuals before entry.
