Travel

Buses

A number of buses serve the University residences, connecting them to the University, city centre, Sheffield Interchange and railway station among other places. Great news, you can get a student ticket for a single journey for £1.20 on First and Stagecoach buses, if you show your Ucard to the driver. You can also get unlimited travel for a week with the FirstWeek student ticket for £9 (£8 if you purchase through the First mobile app) or the Stagecoach weekly student Megarider for £9.

Visit www.travelsouthyorkshire.com for more information.

Buses travelling from Endcliffe and Broomhill:
- Bus no. 120 serves Fulwood Road, Glossop Road, University, city centre and Sheffield Interchange.
- Bus no. 51 serves Lodge Moor to Fulwood Road, Whitham Road, University, city centre and Sheffield Interchange.
- Bus no. 52 serves Hillsborough Walkley, Crookes, Broomhill, University, city centre and Sheffield Interchange.

University of Sheffield Women’s minibus

The Women’s Minibus runs from 9:45pm then every hour until late (check the SU website for times) taking women from the Students’ Union right to their doorsteps, provided you live a maximum of two miles from the Union. It only costs £1.50 per journey or buy a saver ticket that allows you 10 rides for just £10. So you have safe transport home after a night out and it’s cheaper than a taxi - get on it, ladies!

Trams

There are two main routes, the yellow route and the blue route, although all routes go via the University of Sheffield. A single journey costs between £1.70-£2.40 and a Tram Only DayRider ticket costs £4, or for £4.20 you can purchase a Bus & Tram ticket which allows unlimited travel on all trams and Stagecoach buses for a day. You can also buy a weekly, monthly or annual tram pass. Citywide (Stagecoach and First) bus and tram tickets are £4.60.
