

University of Sheffield, Department of Psychology Seminars

(All seminars are on Fridays at 12pm in LT2, Sir Henry Stephenson Building, unless otherwise stated)

15 February 2019

Dr Lesley McGregor, University College London

"Bowel Cancer Screening: Interventions to Increase Participation"

Host – Dr Simone Bijvoet-van den Berg

22 February 2019

Professor David Leiser, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Israel

"The Primate Cognitive Toolbox and Economics Understanding"

Hosts – Professor Richard Rowe & Dr Gurleen Popli (Economics)

1 March 2019

Dr Jo Moss, University of Birmingham

"Autism in genetic syndromes: prevalence, trajectory and causal mechanisms"

Host – Dr Megan Freeth

8 March 2019

Professor Marijn de Bruin, Radboud University Medical Centre, The Netherlands

"The IC-SMOKE project - Changing how we look at evidence from behavioural smoking cessation trials: Accounting for poor reporting and variability in control groups when interpreting and comparing intervention effects"

Host – Dr Thomas Webb

15 March 2019

Dr Philip Newall, University of Warwick

"Exploitative innovation in gambling"

Host – Dr Tom Stafford

22 March 2019

Dr Jim Grange, Keele University

"What role for inhibition in task switching?"

Host – Dr Tom Stafford

29 March 2019

Dr Esther Kuehn, German Centre for Neurodegenerative Diseases

"The cortical microstructure of myelin in health and disease"

Host – Dr Hannes Saal

5 April 2019

Seminar to be confirmed

3 May 2019

Dr Michaela Hieber-Ragger, Medical University of Graz, Austria

"Attachment and emotion regulation: Implications for different aspects of mental health"

Host – Dr Andrew Thompson

10 May 2019

Dr Simon Hanslmayr, University of Birmingham

"How a desynchronized cortex and a synchronized hippocampus cooperatively form and retrieve memories"

Host – Dr Robert Schmidt

For more information, please contact Liz Carl – liz.carl@sheffield.ac.uk