OFF THE SHELF

Festival of Words Sheffield

Saturday 5 to Saturday 26 October

Full programme and booking details at: http://offtheshelf.org.uk

Off the Shelf is now in its 28th year and is an ongoing highlight of Sheffield’s cultural calendar. The festival is managed by a partnership between the University of Sheffield and Sheffield Hallam University with support from Arts Council England.

This year’s themes, which thread through the programme with a strand of events, are ‘Working Class Voices’ curated by Dr David Forrest from the University of Sheffield, and ‘Environment’ curated by co-director of the festival and Sheffield Hallam University academic, Dr Niamh Downing. There are also strands reflecting international areas such as Norway’s ‘Year of Writing’ and reflections from the Roma community.

The wide-ranging programme of events offers a wealth of fiction, non-fiction, poetry, history, science, sport, history, journalism, and politics more.

Understanding Society

Saturday 2 to Saturday 9 November

Full programme and booking details at: www.sheffieldesrcfestival.org

The University of Sheffield and Sheffield Hallam University are working in partnership to deliver ‘Understanding Society’, a programme of public events, including talks, panel debates, film screenings, exhibitions, workshops and theatrical performances. The ESRC Festival of Social Science offers a fascinating insight into some of the country’s leading social science research and how it influences our social, economic and political lives.

Being Human

A FESTIVAL OF THE HUMANITIES

Thursday 14 to Saturday 23 November

Full programme and booking details will be available in October at: www.sheffield.ac.uk/events/being-human

Being Human is the UK’s national festival of the Humanities, and this year Sheffield is hosting one of the festival’s five regional hubs. The 2019 programme explores the themes of myth, dreams and love through immersive events, theatre, food and music. Discover the mythological, allegorical journeys depicted in stunning murals at Bolsover Castle and the magical and dreamlike secrets of the Hypnerotomachia Poliphili, the Italian Renaissance book published 1499.

The wider programme of events offers a wealth of fiction, non-fiction, poetry, history, science, sport, history, journalism, and politics more.
Two weeks of exciting, new professional theatre, performance & workshops at the University Drama Studios this November.

Wilderland is a brand new film festival bringing important, breath-taking stories from around the world to the big screen, made by independent filmmakers from around the globe. These ground-breaking short films will offer audiences unparalleled insight into some of the world’s most incredible wildlife, from Snow Leopards to Orangutans to Humphrey Whales. Wilderland Film Festival is the brainchild of zoologist filmmakers Dan O’Neill and Isaac Rice, who recruited some of the most acclaimed wildlife filmmakers to whittle down a shortlist of over 50 short films to the chosen 9 films that will be seen during the tour. Audiences will also have the opportunity to support the effort to save some of our planet’s most endangered species.
