

Dr. Tom Leng, University of Sheffield, Department of History

List of Publications to date (11th February 2008)

‘Conflict and co-operation in the discourse of trade of seventeenth-century England’, The Historical Journal, 48, 4 (December 2005), pp. 933-954.

Benjamin Worsley (1618-1677): Trade, Interest, and the Spirit in Revolutionary England (forthcoming 2008: Boydell and Brewer for the Royal Historical Society ‘Studies in History’ series).

‘Shaftesbury’s Aristocratic Empire’, in John Spurr (ed.) Anthony Ashley Cooper, First Earl of Shaftesbury, 1621-1683 (Ashgate, forthcoming).

‘“A Potent Plantation well armed and policed”: Huguenots, the Hartlib Circle, and British Colonization in the 1640s’ (under consideration by The William and Mary Quarterly).

‘Natural Philosophy’, in Philip Stern and Carl Wennerlind (eds.) Rethinking Mercantilism: New Perspectives on Politics, Economics, and Cultures of Early Modernity (forthcoming).

‘“What evil spirit haunts this place?” The Guildhall Giants remember Civil War London’ (in preparation).